

The Province of Ontario has issued orders under the Emergency Management and Civil Protection Act (EMCPA) that require:

- Non-essential businesses to close to the public; and,
- Forbid of groups of more than 5 people from gathering

The Federal Quarantine Act has issued orders that require:

- All those returning from international travel to quarantine themselves for 14 days.

If you are concerned that a business or individual is in violation of one of the above listed orders you may call the Township of Southwold office at (519) 769-2010 to report the incident. The Township will work with its Municipal By-Law Enforcement Officer to gain compliance.
